MODIFICATION OF DRY REGULATIONS OFFERED BY U. S.

Understood to be Solution of Present Inconveniences

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 13.—Modification of the effect of American prohibition enforcement regulations as they apply to sealed liquors in transit thru American territory or in ships' stores has been offered to various maritime powers by the state department as a solution for present inconveniences occasioned by foreign shipping. The project it was learned today on high authority, contemplates exercise of the treaty making power to amend existing statutes which means that the modification would have to be obtained to make the modification effective.

The offer also is contingent upon a reciprocal agreement in treaty form by the powers involved which would give the United States the right of search up to twelve miles off shore in carrying on war against rum smugglers operating under foreign flags.

The American proposal is the outgrowth of prolonged study of the involved legal and international situation that has arisen both from the rum smuggling operations and from the recent decision of the supreme court upon which the present rigid treasury regulations excluding all beverages from American territorial jurisdiction are based. It was presented in answer to numerous complaints made by the maritime governments against the inconveniences to their shipping resulting from the regulations. It also follows the refusal of Great Britain last year to agree to a treaty permitting the same extension of the right of search against smugglers which is now proposed, coupled with the offer of modification of ship liquor and liquor in transit ships.

Comment on the new American proposal was withheld in diplomatic circles.

The American proposal does not contemplate any intention to alleviate the ship liquor situation prior to ratification of the treaties by both parties. It therefore offers no method of overcoming the obstacles to international commerce imposed by the treasury regulations for several months at least, as the American senate will not reconvene before December unless called in special session.

Question of Ratification
The question of ratification by the senate will not come up until there is at least some assurance of acceptance of the proposal by some of the powers involved. It is recalled, however, that in the exchange of notes with Great Britain relative to the previous plea for extension of the right of search as a means to check rum smuggling, that the British reply, although unfavorable to the project, admitted that there existed an "abuse" of the British flag in the protection it accorded to the "hoovering smugglers' craft" off the Atlantic coast.

One aspect of the situation which is regarded in official and diplomatic circles here as likely to come to the front in view of the new developments is the difference in viewpoint between the United States and to the status of the international arrangements of foreign ships within the territorial waters of any other power. The American viewpoint has never varied from the assertion of absolute sovereignty over such territorial waters and the supreme court has gone so far as to describe the waters of the three mile zone as territory of the United States for all practical purposes.

Some European powers are understood to contend, however, that the economic control of the ships under their flag is a right not to be challenged even within foreign territorial jurisdiction so long as the peace of the other nation was in no wise jeopardized.

JURY REFUSES MRS. FOX DAMAGES

CHICAGO, June 13.—A jury in circuit court today refused to give Mrs. Gladys Graham Fox any damages for the alleged alienation of her husband's affections by Albert Fuchs, Sr., her father-in-law, a wealthy real estate man. Mrs. Fox was awarded $5,000 at a previous trial but chose to try for higher damages.

Her petition asked for $250,000, alleging that Fuchs, by threatening to disinherit his son, had driven him away from her. Motion of Mrs. Fox's attorney for a new trial will be heard June 20.

STANDARDIZATION IS UNDER WAY IN HARDWOOD INDUSTRY

Members Are so Informed in Their Annual Convention

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 13.—Standardization of grades and terms in the hardwood industry is progressing under the independent direction of the National Hardwood Lumber association apart from the plan suggested by Secretary of Commerce Hoover, President John W. McClure of Memphis, Tenn., said today before the twenty-sixth annual convention of the lumber organization. The attitude toward the Hoover plan, Mr. McClure explained was one of non-participation rather than opposition.

No direct response ever has come from the department of commerce to your suggestion for a special conference of all branches of the hardwood industry, with a view to the practical development of the department's ideas, McClure told the convention.

"Your statement that questions affecting the hardwood industry, must, as a matter of practical necessity, be considered and administered separately from those affecting the soft wood industry has not been recognized by the department altho its soundness has not been questioned."

The aims of the Hoover plan were said by the speaker to be along the same general lines as those of the association, but the former program contemplated at least the partial destruction of a plan of the associations which had been 25 years in the making and could not therefore command the support of the lumber manufacturers represented in the organization.

The greatest period of prosperity the country has ever known is coming but whether it will set in this year or in 1924 or 1925, it is unwise to predict, Harry A. Wheeler, vice-president of the Union Trust company of Chicago told the convention.

Hundreds of members of the Hardwood association are here for the three day meeting.

Before the convention ends, it is expected that action will be taken on the proposition to admit to membership a number of the largest users of hardwood in the country.

COMMENCEMENT AT ILLINOIS WESLEYAN

(By The Associated Press)
BLOOMINGTON, June 13.—"Give Give In world like this. That is the challenge, tremendous Give Give All that's in you."

That was the essence of the address given before the graduating classes of Illinois Wesleyan University this morning in Amie Chapel by Bishop William F. Anderson, D.D., LL. D., of the Methodist Episcopal church, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Before the largest class ever graduated at Wesleyan Bishop Anderson, commencement speaker, gave a fiery address in which he pictured the path that each student must travel and of the challenge that the world hurled.

"To meet the challenge the student must give the best that is in him," said the bishop, "or failure will be the reward."

Following the commencement address the diploma and degrees were conferred by Dr. William J. Davidson, president of Illinois Wesleyan University. Twenty six students were awarded the degree of Bachelor of Science and fourteen of laws.

LIGHT WINES AND BEER FAVORED BY CHICAGO COUNCIL

Body Goes on Record Wednesday After Exciting Session

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 12.—The City council in a session punctuated by exciting moments today went on record in favor of light wines and beer.

A resolution introduced by Alderman Harry Klink, asked congress to amend the dry law so wines and beer could be manufactured and sold.

Alderman Guernsey and other dry members denounced the wet charging they were inconsistent when they voted down an amendment offered by Alderman McKinley to a resolution offered by Alderman Coughlin which provided against the re-establishment of the saloon and provided for the enforcement of existing dry laws.

Alderman McKinley explained this was the stand taken by Governor Smith of New York.

MORE TESTIMONY IN BATTLE FOR CHILD

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 13.—Testimony involving characters from a photographer in Warsaw, Poland, to neighbors of the witness in Chicago was given today by Mrs. Julia Wasy Prybylski in a legal battle for the custody of Leona Felicia Wasy, 5 years old, claimed by the two women as their child. Mrs. Violet Lenz also claims the child and her future custody is in the hands of Judge Joseph B. David.

Mrs. Prybylski had testified previously that the child was born in Poland after she had served behind the lines in the war and that a photographer in Warsaw could identify both herself and the girl.

Today she testified she entered the United States with Leona through Ellis Island and had been known as the child's mother in Chicago by tradesmen and her neighbors. Judge David ordered that these be summoned.

Mrs. Lenz, who has held the child in her lap during the trial has testified that a man whose name she refuses to divulge is the father of Leona. Nicholas Lenz, her husband, who now has custody of the child testified today that Mrs. Prybylski had asked him for $1,000 to keep a secret. Asked by Judge David whether he thought his wife was the mother of Leona he replied "he had suspicions."

MORE INDICTMENTS BY GRAND JURY

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 13.—Three indictments charging bribery and one charging conspiracy were returned tonight by the special grand jury investigating city hall affairs. Those named in the indictments are Stanley S. Walo-wiak, former alderman, charged with bribery and conspiracy; Frank Kline, former alderman, and Joseph S. Smith, charged with bribery.

The bribes are alleged to have been paid by persons interested in the vacating of some alleys and Walkowiak is alleged to have conspired to obtain a position for an attorney for which, it is alleged, he received $2,000.

KIDNAP GIRL IN CROWDED STREET

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 13.—A pretty young woman was snatched from a Bronx apartment house doorway tonight by three men, who, despite her screams and the presence of hundreds of passersby carried her to a waiting taxi-cab and sped away.

Officials described the kidnapping as one of the most daring in the city's history. Scores of persons in the vicinity saw the men dash up to the young woman who was about nineteen years old and place her in the car. At a late hour tonight even the identity of the girl had not been established.

JURY SELECTED IN MURDER TRIAL

Chicago, June 13.—Selection of a jury to try Warren D. Lindholm, formerly a teller for the First National Bank at Berwyn, Ill., charged with the murder of his first wife, Mrs. Emil Straka Lindholm, was completed in criminal court today.

William F. McLaughlin, assistant state's attorney, announced that he would ask the death penalty for Lindholm.

Look For Bucketshop Disclosures Soon

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 13.—Possibility of important disclosures concerning the operation of bucketshops in the Wall street district loomed as imminent tonight.

Edward M. Fuller and William Frank McGee partners in the most spectacular bucketshop failure of recent years went before General Sessions Judge Nott this morning and pleaded guilty of bucketting. This afternoon Fuller was taken under guard to the offices of Harold Coffin, referee in bankruptcy for further examination concerning the affairs of the house.

He obtained an adjournment until tomorrow however, at which time he said he might be able to give valuable information not only concerning the assets of E. M. Fuller & Co., but with reference to various persons who might be responsible for the obligations of Fuller & Co.

This was taken in some quarters as an indication that he might reveal connections of the Fuller firm with a huge bucketshop "ring" existence of which has been a matter of gossip in Wall Street for months.

How far Fuller would get in an attempt to win clemency from the court when he comes up for sentence, however, was problematical. His partner McGee in announcing their decision to plead guilty said that they had decided on that course to "save innocent friends further embarrassment."

Fuller, while he did not contradict McGee's statement made no such statement himself. Judge Nott let it be known shortly after Fuller's and McGee's plea had been entered that he had not made up his mind what punishment should be meted out. The maximum imposes five years. The minimum is a suspended sentence.

CHINESE BANDITS' PRISONERS HAVE REACHED SHANGHAI

(By The Associated Press)
SHANGHAI, June 13.—Six of the eight foreign captives released yesterday by the Shantung bandits after being held prisoners since May 6, arrived here today. Although unmet and fagged out generally the victims of the Chinese outlaws apparently were little the worse for their arduous experience. Those arriving today were G. D. Musso, J. B. Powell, Emil Gensberger, Fred Elias, Leon Friedman and Lee Solomon. Major Roland W. Pinger, U. S. A., and R. H. Rowlett proceeded north to Tientsin and Peking where relatives and friends were awaiting them. The former captives all received enthusiastic receptions at every station where their train stopped.

It was stated that the final negotiations for the release of the prisoners nearly ended in a fiasco. The bandits at the last moment demanded that 5,000 of their number be enrolled in the Chinese army instead of the agreed 2,000 and also that they be paid $100,000 ransom for the captives.

The intermediaries and government officials eventually compromised by agreeing to pay $55,000.

The brigands decided to retain their Chinese captives sending them back to the mountains. It was said that four of these, however, contrived to escape when they were being sent back. All the former captives are insistent that the fullest reparations and indemnities be demanded of China and that the government take action to prevent future outbreaks. The bandits victims said that during the last ten days of their captivity they were subjected to continuous insults.

MORE TESTIMONY ON BOILER SALES

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 13.—Further testimony regarding the sale of 46 boilers to the Chicago Board of Education was brought out by the state today at the trial of Fred Lundin and 20 co-defendants charged with conspiracy to defraud the board of $1,000,000.

The state is attempting to show that the boilers were purchased from the Fitzgerald Boiler Works when the same boilers could have been obtained from other sources at a saving of approximately $175,000.

John Howatt, chief engineer of the board was questioned in regard to his participation in the purchase. Howatt testified that some of the defendants had told him that the boilers could not be purchased from any other source than the Fitzgerald concern.

Prior to his testimony trade papers advertising the same boilers for sale, were introduced into evidence.

ALABAMA HOTEL DESTROYED BY FIRE

(By The Associated Press)
RUSSELLVILLE, Ala., June 13.—The Hotel Daniels was destroyed by fire which originated in a bakery next door tonight. At 10 o'clock the fire still was raging and apparently an entire block in the heart of town is doomed. Firemen are hampered by low water pressure.

A call for assistance has been sent to Florence and Sheffield. Reports from Sheffield state that the fire engines there are unable to make the trip to Russellville, while fire trucks started from Florence are said to be held up at a bridge between Russellville and Florence.

TWO WOMEN ARE HELD IN DEATH OF W. C. CALHOUN

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 13.—The arrest of Mrs. Anna Wenczel, her daughter Miss Adeline Anderson and Miss Anderson's fiancé, Robert Hollenbeck, today, followed disclosures that Mrs. Wenczel's automobile, driven by herself, struck William J. Calhoun early Sunday morning inflicting injuries of which he died in a police station.

Mrs. Wenczel was charged with manslaughter on her alleged confession and both her daughter and Hollenbeck were booked as accessories after the fact.

David Curtis and Michael Reynolds, policemen, who failed to take Calhoun to a hospital when they found him, have been suspended and charges of neglect of duty filed against them.

SPEAKER DECLARES MEDICAL SCIENCE IS ON GLAND JAG

Says Search for the Elixir of Life is About Ended

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 13.—Medical science is on a "gland jag" declared Dean Eycleshymer of the Medical College of the University of Illinois in an address today at the commencement exercises of the General Medical College.

Speaking on the "Search for an elixir of life" the dean expressed belief that the search had about ended but the average span of human life has been prolonged for about sixteen years.

"Much speculation and not a little experimentation have been centered around sex glands," said Dean Eycleshymer. "The best results of the period of investigation show that energy both muscular and mental is at the highest tide when the sex glands are the most active and conversely that efficiency, both physical and mental declines as these glands function less."

"Transplantation experiments indicate temporary rejuvenation. But the wave of gland transplantation that is sweeping the country at present commanding fabulous prices for both material and operation will soon be placed in the sale category as the 'corn whiskey'."

The oldest man that ever lived was Peter Torton of Temeswar, Hungary, who died at the ripe old age of 185, according to the dean. He mentioned fifty others who had lived more than 150 years, five who had passed 160 and two who exceeded the 170 mark.

SHERIFF SAYS IT WAS FRAMED

(By The Associated Press)
AURORA, Ill., June 13.—The mystery of where Warren J. Lincoln, Aurora horticulturalist, spent more than a month after he disappeared from his home will remain a mystery as far as Sheriff W. E. Orr is concerned, Sheriff Orr said tonight.

"I am convinced the whole thing was framed up by Lincoln," Orr said. "He wrote the letters in the case he disappeared and his wife and brother-in-law had nothing to do with it. The different stories he has told since he came back would send me chasing from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean. I can't afford to waste my time investigating such tales."

Lincoln, a former attorney was found Tuesday in a Chicago hotel. He told a story of being held prisoner in a basement flat by dope peddlers after being taken there by his wife and brother-in-law who he said kidnapped him.

OIL COMPANY NOT PAYING DIVIDENDS

New York, June 13.—Directors of the Tidewater Oil company which stopped paying dividends Dec. 31, 1921, decided today upon further postponement of dividend payments owing to the overproduction of crude oil in California and mid-continent fields.

CORONER'S JURY RETURNS VERDICT IN MOUNT CASE

Student Came to His Death at Hands of Parties Unknown

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 13.—The coroner's jury investigating the death of Leighton Mount, Northwestern University student, whose skeleton was found under an Evanston pier six weeks ago today reached a verdict that Mount had come to his death at the hands of persons unknown and recommended that these persons be apprehended and brought before the grand jury.

The inquest was resumed Wednesday after a grand jury investigation had failed to disclose any new evidence concerning the disappearance of Mount after a class rush at the university of the night of September 21, 1921.

The verdict stated that the jury was unable to determine how or in what manner Mount met his death but it was his opinion that he came to his death at the hands of some unknown person or persons, and we recommend the police continue their investigation and if possible such persons or person be apprehended and held on a charge of murder to the grand jury until released by due process of law.

The verdict followed testimony that Mount was seen at the university gymnasium about three o'clock on the morning of September 22, that he was a normal youth of happy nature and at the time of his disappearance was contemplating entertaining friends at a social evening later with a musical concert. Harry Cook, a friend of Mount, testified that he had seen Mount at the gymnasium at 3 a. m. during the night of the class rush and had asked Mount if he were going home. Mount replied in the negative, he said, but no reason was given for his decision to remain. Mr. and Mrs. Mount, parents of Leighton were present at the inquest but departed before the verdict was returned.

Commenting on the evidence presented to the jury, Charles N. Cramer foreman said:

"We all agreed immediately that it was not a case of suicide. Someone had killed Mount and the only argument was to how the verdict should be worded."

Chief of Police Leggett of Evanston said that the police will continue to investigate the case.

Members of Mount's family said that funeral plans are still pending. They said that they are awaiting the permission of the coroner to take possession of the skeleton.

WOMAN SHOWS EMOTION AT TRIAL

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 13.—Miss Myrna Miller showed the first trace of emotion in her trial for the shooting of the former's husband, Michael J. McGinnis, a city fireman when Thomas J. Durkin, a policeman today identified on the witness stand the revolver with which she is alleged to have done the shooting.

FRANCE IS NOT AT WAR WITH GERMANY

(By The Associated Press)
PARIS, June 13.—France is not at war with Germany. This was the semi-official comment at the foreign office tonight when attention was called to suggestions said to have emanated from Berlin that "an armistice, or suspension of hostilities be concluded in the Ruhr." The feeling in official quarters is that the question hinges on the interpretation of the word "armistice" if Germany wants tranquility restored in the Ruhr officials say all she has to do is to abandon her campaign of resistance. The French point out that altho officialdom in Germany headed by Chancellor Cuno, is resisting to end the passive resistance, there is much discussion of how it can eventually be accomplished.

Meanwhile they say France is strong enough to await developments with equanimity.

DISPATCHES ARE ONLY OFFICIAL

London, June 13.—Most of the dispatches reaching London from Sofia are confined to official statements and news of the recent revolution and present administration from the standpoint of the new government. The fate of former Premier Stamboulsky is still doubtful. The general impression in London is that altho the new premier Zankoff is a strong man his cabinet will find it difficult to run contrary to the wishes of the militarists.

HOUSE AND SENATE AT LOGGERHEADS ON OMNIBUS MEASURE

House Refuses to Concur in Slashes Made by Senate

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 13.—Appointment of House and Senate conference committees tonight followed refusal of the upper branch to recede from its stand in making large slashes in the omnibus bill. The house during the afternoon refused to concur in senate amendments and tonight the senate asked that the bill be sent to conference.

Members of the senate committee are Wright, chairman, Dailey, Meents, Buck and Hughes the latter a Democrat. The house appointees are Smejkal, Curran, C. L. McLaughlin, Devine and Igoe the latter two Democrats.

Director McLain of the finance department today announced official figures on the omnibus. When introduced in the house it appropriated $18,890,647. The house lopped $557,746 and the senate $1,375,818.

House members tonight criticized the senate's numerous slashes Representatives Devine and Igoe and others declaring the senators had started a three ring circus and had been merely "four flushing." State departments, it was asserted had been crippled by the large reduction in appropriations.

The senate tonight concurred in house amendments to the $100,000,000 road bond bill, passed by the house this afternoon and the measure's next destination is the governor's office. Bills passed tonight by the house include:

Schools—Bringing threshermen under the provisions of the workmen's compensation act.

Thon—Prohibiting catching of black bass between March 1, and June 15, or retaining fish of less than 10 inches.

FORMER LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR TESTIFIES

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 13.—Frank P. McLain, former lieutenant governor of Pennsylvania, testifying today at the interstate commerce hearing on the petition of John Morrell & Co., packers of Ottumwa, Iowa said that it was the general impression in the east that the Iowa packers are simply "stalking horses" of the large packers. The Morrell company petitions for equalization of rates on meat products and livestock from interior points to the Atlantic coast alleging that the freight rates prevent their competing with eastern packing concerns.

Sixty-five packing companies have filed intervening petitions, taking the same position as the Morrell company.

"While the big packers are not openly affiliated with the Iowa packers privately they are in favor of eventually wiping out the present differential which exists between livestock and dressed meat rates," Mr. McLain said.

REPORT OF SALE HAS BEEN DENIED

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 13.—Reports that John D. Rockefeller and John D. Rockefeller, Jr., had sold their town houses in West Fifty-fourth street were denied tonight by representatives for the Rockefeller and for the Mandel-Ehrich corporation, mentioned as the purchaser. The senior Rockefeller occupies a six story house at 4 West 54th street and his son a nine story residence adjoining. Both recently purchased pieces of nearby property to maintain the residential character of the street.

The last of a series of historical articles reviewing facts leading to the Spanish-American war and the happenings in that war appeared in the Journal yesterday. These articles were written by Mr. Ensley Moore, known for his interest in historical matters. The articles are well worth preserving as they present a great deal of valuable subject matter in condensed form.

The passage of the road bond bill by the Illinois house was a decided victory for Gov. Small and the administration. The bill passed the house yesterday by the decisive vote of 100 to 42 and now goes to the senate, where previous action indicates that it will be speedily adopted.

The road bill which will put to the people the question of voting $100,000,000 for the further development of the hard roads of the state, has been consistently fought by opponents of the administration, but evidently without success.

Jacksonville will be honored today by the presence of Miss Julia Lathrop, who for many years has been identified with philanthropic and social service work, both in this state and nation. Miss Lathrop although not far advanced in years may properly be called a pioneer in these lines of public service. Her work and accomplishments have shown that she has vision but is not an idle dreamer, and in a rare way she has fitted in the practical with the theoretical.

The value placed on Miss Lathrop's service as the head of the children's bureau at Washington is best indicated by the fact that she held the office thru the terms of two presidents and entered upon a third term, her resignation being necessitated by the need for a rest.

CHARITY'S FRACTION

A recent boxing bout staged in Chicago for the benefit of charity is said to have brought in $55,000, of which charity received the munificent sum of $25. An official investigation has been undertaken to discover why charity profited so little. The local internal revenue collector wants to know where the admission tax is. According to one report some of the supposed patrons declare that their names were used without permission.

It is another instance of a mistakenly handled enterprise and the misuse of the name of charity. The boxers were there for financial profit; and their promoters were there for the same reason. No doubt some of the spectators came to aid charity, but most must have come solely for their interest in a boxing match.

Charity lost out that time, but it is cheering to know that Uncle Sam is after his bit.

SWITZERLAND GOING DRY

It is hard to see much reason for wet jubilation over the prohibition vote in Switzerland. True, that little country voted against prohibition by a majority of about 360,000 to 250,000, but the wonder is that the drys mustered so large a vote. There was little in the history and habits of the Swiss people to indicate so much dry sentiment as actually appeared.

The Swiss are a composite nation made up of three races, French, Italian and Austrian. The people of France and Italy are in general wine drinkers, and Austria has never shown any animus against alcoholic liquor.

Yet more than two Swiss citizens out of every five have voted against the liquor traffic.

Another ballot or two, and Switzerland may give prohibition a majority, repeating the progressive dry record of this country. And if Switzerland goes dry, it will have a marked effect on surrounding countries. There are many signs that dry sentiment is spreading rapidly in Great Britain and Germany.

There is no telling where this big reform, started by the United States, will end. It may sweep around the world eventually.

COMMENCEMENT AT ROUTT COLLEGE

Three Graduated From School Last Night—Large Audience Gathered for the Exercises.

The eighteenth annual commencement of Routt College was held last night in the college auditorium with a large number present. The Rev. Edward J. Mulally, who was to have delivered the commencement address, was unavailable and the address was given by Dean F. F. Fornaz, versatile as usual, filled the gap with a few well chosen remarks on "Modern Tendencies in Education."

The class to receive the degrees included: Harriett Kennedy, Helen Mandeville and Clarence Maloney, each of which held a prominent place on the program of the evening.

The program was as follows:
Employer and Employee—Clarence Maloney
Christianity and Women—Harriett Kennedy

The Spring—French Folk Song, Chanson de Florian—Godard—Sung by a double quartet of girls. Modern Aspects of Spiritism—Helen Mandeville.
Love's Benediction—Irish Folk Song.

Dawn—Tchaikowsky—Sung by double quartet.

Conferring of degrees—Very Rev. Dean Fornaz.

Briefs of the thesis that were read by the members of the graduating class are as follows:

Miss Kennedy.
Miss Harriett Kennedy in her thesis on "Christianity and Woman," traced the history of woman's estate thru the nations of antiquity up to the time of Christ's advent on earth, and then showed the changed conditions that resulted, owing largely to "marriage being made a sacrament." "Again there are those who would fasten the credit for woman's sanctity on the knights and chivalry of the middle ages." "That the feudal Baron, returning to his castle, found there his wife and immediate family was due to the sanctity of marriage. The knights of the middle ages fought for our lady and his lady love. The feeling of respect for woman was the result of the sentiment of reverence felt by the faithful for the Mother of God."

"Some advocates of Woman's Rights," said Miss Kennedy, "accuse Christianity of the subjugation of woman to man and the theory that woman's place is in the home. Christianity, on the contrary, believes that woman's sphere is wherever she can do her best work and live the fullest and most perfect life."

Miss Mandeville.
Miss Helen Mandeville then presented a thesis on "Modern Aspects of Spiritism." Says Miss Mandeville: "Detectives have their favorite mediums, brokers consult them frequently, and some business men keep several mediums on their payroll, referring to them on questions of importance." The authoress then goes on to explain that spiritism as it is known today is essentially a modern development, although its basic roots stretch back to the earliest days and we see mention of communion with spirits in the old testament. "At the beginning of the modern movement toward spiritism," says Miss Mandeville, "no reputable scientist gave serious thought toward it." "However, in 1882 the society for Psychical research was founded and a scientific investigation into the subject has been made. Miss Mandeville held that spiritism is becoming a religion to some of its followers and ends her excellent treatise with the statement that: "It is evident that spiritism is a definitely planned effort to found a new religion hostile to Christianity." "It is," she said "a well designed plot to destroy the church of Christ."

Mr. Maloney.
Clarence Maloney took as the subject for his thesis "Employer and Employee." He opened his paper with the statement that the question of Capital versus Labor is one of the moral rather than a purely economic one. After an exposition on the rights of both parties, that of the capitalist to the intelligent effort of his labor and that of labor to a good support for his family and a means for support in declining years he names a few of the remedies that have been suggested for the trouble. Namely these are Socialism, profit sharing and state control. The author holds that the question is not one that can be definitely decided by any of these methods but lies in the honest conscience relations between the two parties," said the speaker.
"Religion teaches the laboring man to carry out honesty and fairly all equitable agreement freely made; it refrains him from injuring persons or property, from using violence and causing disorder. It teaches the owner and employer that the laborer is not a bondsman, that every man has an inherent dignity as a man and a Christian, that labor is an honorable calling, carrying with it a dignity of its own, and consequently it is shameful and inhuman to treat men like chattels, as so many machines for grinding out work."

Mrs. Stanley I. Davis and children will leave this morning for an extended stay in Colorado. Mr. Davis intended to accompany them but yesterday received a summons to go to New York City to be present at the formal opening of a $1,000,000 laboratory that the company he represents has just completed. A little later Mr. Davis will make the trip west.

MARKOE FLAG TO BE EXHIBITED

First Flag to Have Thirteen Stripes Was Invented by Ancestor of S. O. Barr.

Among the many interesting flags of our country's history that will be exhibited by the C. A. R. children at the D. A. R. reception Friday night is the Markoe flag, presented by Captain Abram Markoe, ancestor of the Barr family of this city, to the Philadelphia Light horse troop in 1776.

Unfortunately the replica of the banner that will be used is in poor condition, but in it we see a near image of that old Markoe flag, the first to have thirteen stripes, and the flag that Washington had in mind when he designed the stars and stripes.

The Philadelphia Light Horse Troop acted as Washington's body guard when he went to take command of the continentals at Cambridge in 1776. Captain Markoe, the commander of the troop, originated the design of the flag and presented it to the troop. The banner itself is of yellow with thirteen blue and white stripes in the place occupied by stars in the flag of today. In the center of the banner is a large coat of arms flanked by men in the liberty cap and surmounted by a horses head as a crest. Under the escutcheon is the motto of the troop "For These We Strive" meaning of course liberty, as represented by the figures and Liberty Cap.

Some of the other flags that will be exhibited are: The Pine Tree Flag; The Snake Flag, with its famous motto "Don't Tread on Me"; the flag of South Carolina Regiments, with its three white crescents on a field of blue; and countless other interesting banners that will be of interest to every American.

The Children of the American Revolution have at present a picture of Captain Markoe with a picture in color of his famous flag. Little Barbara Dunlap, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dunlap of Finley street and a descendant of Captain Markoe, will carry the Markoe flag and recite a verse appropriate to its history. The local C. A. R. chapter considers itself fortunate to have three of Captain Markoe's descendants on its roll of members. The program Friday night will start promptly at eight o'clock.

The Misses Mary and Stella Trainor of New Berlin are guests this week of the Misses Matilda and Loretta Kumle of 311 East College avenue.

Telephone Talk No. 21

"Timing Long Distance Telephone Calls"

How does the telephone company time a long distance call? The method is simple and accurate.

The operator does not look at a clock; she might easily misread that clock. She has a ticket on which the details of the call are written. When the conversation starts, she slips the ticket into a machine called a "calculagraph," which automatically stamps on the back the correct time to a fraction of a minute.

When the conversation is finished, the calculagraph again stamps the ticket in a way which shows directly the time which has elapsed since the first stamping.

The calculagraph is carefully inspected three times daily in order to see that it is in perfect working condition.

The use of this mechanical device insures accuracy in the timing of long distance calls.

Child-birth

Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers!

When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined.

An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend."

Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse, and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., B.A. 46, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores everywhere.

FUNERAL OF ROY ROSS WAS HELD AT VIRGINIA

Largely Attended Funeral Services Held Wednesday Afternoon for Victim of Accident.

Virginia, June 13.—Funeral services for the late Roy Ross were held at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the family home on South Cass street with Rev. J. J. Wilson of Urbana, a former pastor of the Presbyterian church at Virginia officiating.

Two solos were rendered in a beautiful manner by Miss Agnes Lloyd of Springfield, who sang "Face to Face" and "Peace, Sweet Peace."

There was a great profusion of beautiful floral tributes, attesting the esteem in which the deceased was held by relatives and friends. These floral offerings were cared for by Mrs. M. Lancaster and daughter, Miss Iva.

Burial was made on Walnut Ridge cemetery.

Mr. Ross, who died Monday as the result of a collision at the Conover crossing of the B. and O. near Virginia, was a son of William and Marie Elliott Ross. He was born October 5, 1879, and had spent practically all of his life in Cass county. Mr. Ross was widely known as a farmer and stock raiser. ### ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM WHITE HALL

Forum Meetings to Conclude Next Sunday Night—Abandoned Well Is Discovered—Other News Notes.

White Hall — Characterizing the action of Governor Smith, of New York, in signing the prohibition repealer, as much an act of secession as that of the South in firing on Fort Sumter in 1861, Rev. L. E. Ellison, speaking in the Princess theatre Sunday evening, stated that "the 18th amendment is a part of the fundamental law of the land, and that we cannot sin with immunity in 1923 any more than we did in 1860." Next Sunday night will be the concluding service in Princess theatre, when the quarterly community forum will be held, the subject to be discussed to be announced later in the week. The congregation of the First Baptist church, after that late, will return to the remodeled and enlarged church building, dedication of which will take place on Sunday, July 1st.

L. C. Vinyard is attending the Missouri state pharmaceutical convention in St. Louis this week.

The discovery of an abandoned well by Ernest Halbert in the rear of his barber shop has resulted in the removal of a source of danger that has existed for years near the Cannum blacksmith shop. Mr. Halbert was digging a place for flowers when he came onto a concrete substance. He penetrated it, and it proved to be one inch thick covering a well 22 feet deep and lined with 24-inch sewer pipe. There was nine feet of water in it. There is no saying how long the covering had existed and pedestrians and teams had been moving over it all the while. The discovery puts a new well in service, and this comes at a time when it is stated by local health authorities that there is no ground for the report circulated last week to the effect that the well adjacent to the Whiteside-Griswold memorial library is to be abandoned.

Jointworm damage in wheat has been found to be especially bad east of Carrollton, some fields showing 20 to 30 per cent injured by this cause, according to J. W. Miles and P. J. Byrd, who are in White Hall, after inspecting other parts of the county as to crop conditions. Aside from this finding, all crop conditions are excellent, including apples and all kinds of fruit. The potato crop is assured as the result of the copious showers of Sunday and Monday.

The above is the observation shown in the weekly crop and weather report for this station. The rainfall for the week ending Monday totaled 0.66 inch, of which 0.44 inch fell on Sunday. The highest temperature reading was 91 on the 5th, the average maximum being 77.8 degrees, and the lowest reading was 54 on the 7th, the mean minimum being 59.7 degrees. It is calculated that wheat cutting will get under way by the 20th inst. The crop inspectors now in White Hall are under the direction of P. A. Gland of Urbana, chief plant inspector. They report that a representative of the state entomologist recently inspected the apple district, and found nothing to mitigate against the excellent crop that is now promised.

A continuation of the showery condition is bringing about better conditions in relation to water supplies.

PESKY BED BUGS

Bed bugs lay an average of seven eggs per day. Under favorable conditions they hatch in five days of which two-thirds are females. They mature to adult size and are capable of laying in four weeks. How many bed bugs would you have in a year if you left one female or egg unmolested for one year?

To rid the pesky bedbug, you really see how necessary it is to use a preparation that will kill the eggs as well as the live ones. P. D. Q. has been demonstrated by the leading hospitals, hotels and railroad companies that the safest and most economical way to stop future generations of bedbugs, roaches, fleas and ants is to use the new discovery Pesky Destroyer "P. D. Q."

A 35c package of P. D. Q. makes a quart, enough to kill a million bedbugs, roaches, fleas and ants and at the same time destroy their eggs.

Impossible for them to exist when P. D. Q. is properly used. Free a patent report in every package to get the pesky devil in the hard-to-get-at places and save the juice.

MAINTENANCE OF WAY MEN FINISH THEIR TESTIMONY

Are Asking Railroad Labor Board for Increase in Wages

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, June 13. A three day hearing before the United States Labor Board on a request for increases in wages for members of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers employed by about 30 railroads was concluded late today. Representatives of the carriers and the Union leaders reviewed their arguments in brief summaries.

F. L. Josedal, resident of the Union in presenting the closing argument for the increases ranging from 8 1/2 to 15 cents an hour, asked the board to take cognizance of the living conditions of many of the members of his organization and reasserted that the rate of pay now being paid to many of them precluded the possibility of an "American standard of living."

Representatives of the carriers denied that there is a general upward trend of wages outside the railroad industry other than that which is due to seasonal activities.

SEARCH FOR AMERICAN WOMEN WHO DIED ABROAD DURING WORLD WAR

Chicago (AP)—To complete the record of American women who died in service over seas in the late war, the national Women's Overseas Service League will devote this Decoration Day to a final effort to obtain the necessary data.

Names of 166 "gold star women," obtained by a careful search of A. E. F. records, were made public for the first time by the league last Armistice Day. This was followed by the discovery that a number of American service women died and were buried in foreign soil prior to America's entry into the war.

"It is the names of these women we hope now to procure," said Miss Irene Givenwilton of Washington, D. C., curator of the American Red Cross museum, who is in charge of the research work. We know that many American women volunteered with many relief organizations serving in Russia, Serbia, France and other countries, from August 1, 1914, until we entered the war. These names are difficult to trace.

The "roll of honor" will be called at the next overseas women's reunion to be held June 14-17.

MUST END HATE TO HEAL EUROPE

This Was Message of Dr. W. H. Stevenson in Address at Westminster Last Night—Speaker Spent More Than Year in Europe

While by no means a pessimist, Dr. William H. Stevenson of Ames college, Iowa, who made an address at Westminster church last night, sees no hope for Europe until the hearts of men are changed.

"After studying condition over there for 16 months," the speaker said, "I can see no outcome for the nations until there is a lessening of hate and something comes of brotherly love."

Dr. Stevenson, who is here for Illinois college commencement events and as a guest at the home of his father, Henry S. Stevenson on West College avenue, has but recently returned from Rome, where he was U. S. government representative at the institute of agriculture.

A meeting of the Men's Brotherhood of Westminster church was arranged in his honor and after an excellent dinner had been served by Westminster women the speaker was introduced by Dr. Thomas W. Smith, pastor of the church. The chairman recalled the fact that the speaker some 20 years ago was a pupil of his in Illinois college.

During his stay in Europe Dr. Stevenson had unusual opportunities for study of conditions, and while he was not in Russia he made stays in practically all other countries that were engaged in the World war.

Rich Fall to Meet Need In beginning his very informing address, which was delivered in an entirely informal way, Dr. Stevenson referred to the impressions that he received when he landed in one of the principal cities of Belgium. The streets were lined with limousines and the hotels were crowded. This was in one of the very years that Americans were straining themselves to contribute to the needy and starving in Belgium and elsewhere in Europe.

The speaker said that the need existed but that so far as he was concerned he made up his mind to never again make contributions to such causes until the rich people of the countries themselves had shown some spirit of sacrifice and willingness to bear their share of the burden.

Dr. Stevenson spoke particularly of conditions in Italy because his appointment kept him in Rome for the larger part of his time. He briefly described the unsteady conditions in Italy, where each night millions go to bed hungry, and since hunger creates unrest there is instability.

Then he told of the rise of the fascist, who 400,000 or 500,000 strong, banded themselves together to suppress the reds and they did it in a very few days. But the power achieved gave them a desire to lead and so at present they have control of parliament and the unusual spectacle is presented of parliament dictating to the king.

"American Leadership Not Wanted" "I cannot be hopeful that the further acts of the fascists will be as beneficial as was their course in putting down anarchy. The attitude of Italy is well shown in the opposition toward the Methodist church, which maintains a church in Rome and a college for women and is building one for men. It took the Methodists months and months to acquire sites on which to build and the great majority of the people used their influence to prevent boys and girls from attending the American colleges."

"In the year after the war thru the influence of the Methodist church $50,000 worth of farm tools were made available for the use of Italians on their farms, and not one of these tools was taken from the crate. You can judge for yourself of the difficulty of trying to accomplish anything in a religious or educational way in the face of such opposition. American Christianity leadership is not wanted."

Impoverished Austria Austria is in an impoverished and exhausted condition but in common parlance that country got from the war about what was coming to it because of corrupt conditions. Germany is indeed a place for the study of problems. We were in Bavaria and as the guests of a well-to-do resident went to examine his farm. It was managed in a splendid way with reference to production but we gained some insight into conditions when the owner told us that a committee representing the government had recently visited the farm and inspected it to determine whether it was well operated as the smaller farms of the peasants. If not the law makes it possible for the government to confiscate the property and divide it up for free assignment to others.

"One day we were taken to a club for luncheon. We were escorted thru an alley and up a stairway and then were surprised to find ourselves in richly furnished club rooms where people were dining. The blinds at the front were drawn and the windows were barricaded. We do not dare let the populace see us dining or resting in finely furnished apartments. So Germany is constantly on the edge of a volcano."

Hate Is Dominant "But the most serious condition in Germany is hatred. They do not like Americans there but they say 'we have no quarrel with you. We have no quarrel with the English, but oh how we hate the French.' They make no secret of the fact but wait the day when they are strong enough to attempt

BASEBALL GAME ENDS IN KILLING

Chicago, June 13.—A group of kids searching for a vacant lot in which to play baseball out of danger of traffic, started a riot here tonight which resulted in one death and injuries to several.

Pasqual Lamontagno, father of five of the children, was shot and killed by Joseph Monando. The latter owned the lot and objected to children playing upon it. When he ordered them off and they failed to obey, witnesses said he summoned a group of friends and shot Lamontagno down in front of his home.

The free-for-all fight which ensued between friends of the two men, halted traffic on the street for more than an hour. Monando was found later by police hiding in a shed and refused to make a statement. He was arrested.

It is a fact that with the increase of red-cells in your blood, impurities are destroyed. # JACKSONVILLE WELCOMES U. S. W. VETERANS

ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT OPENS ITS SESSIONS HERE THIS MORNING

Many Delegates Arrived Yesterday and Last Night—Chicago Delegation Came by Special Train—Special Program at I. S. D. This Afternoon—Public is Invited

With indications pointing to fair weather all is in readiness for the opening of the annual encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans today. Delegates have been arriving for several days and the majority of them came in yesterday and last night.

The Chicago delegation headed by Colonel J. J. Garrity arrived late last night on a special train with a band and were met by members of the reception committee and escorted to the Illinois School for the Deaf where headquarters have been established. Other delegates are expected today as well as visitors and by the time of the opening program this afternoon several thousand strangers will be guests of the city.

As the delegates walk the streets of the city they will see that Jacksonville has anticipated their coming and wishes to honor them to the highest degree, for flags fly in a double row from the square to the school for the deaf on State street and many merchants have practically decorated their windows to fit into the scheme of things. One of the features of the decoration of the city is the establishment in many of the windows of pictures of the scenes and heroes of '98. Among the heroes seen are Admiral Dewey, Admiral Sampson, Lieutenant Hobson, and Captain Sigbee, commander of the ill-fated Maine, whose sinking was the spark that set the fire of war to burning.

National Commander in Chief Entenza will speak this afternoon as well as past Commander in Chief Carlstrom, both being men of national wide reputation. Among the notable to arrive up to last night were: Mrs. Margaret H. Henry, Department President of the Auxiliary U. S. W. S.; Department Adjutant Charles I. Daniels, of Chicago; and John F. Holslag, Chicago.

Co. I Officers All Here
A rather noteworthy fact is that all three officers of old Co. "I," Major Vickery, Lieut. McDonnell and Capt. Hunt are all present for the encampment as is also former first sergeant Wesley R. James. "Umbrella" Cohenour and Vernie Helliwell are on the way and "Tip" Henry and Earl Vickery are already here, so with the local residents who were members of old Co. "I" will have a very great showing indeed considering that 25 years have passed.

This afternoon beginning at two o'clock the program in observance of the twenty-fifth anniversary will be given on the school for the deaf school grounds. There will be seats for everybody and the public is most cordially invited to this encampment will be interesting to every American. In addition to the two leading speeches by the com-

PLANS COMPLETED FOR SERVING VETS

Ample Arrangements Made to Take Care of Four Thousand World War Men at State Hospital Friday Morning

All is in readiness for the feeding of hundreds of vets at the Jacksonville State hospital grounds from 11:30 to 12:30 Friday. Every veteran of any war who registers at the registration booth in the public square and is provided there with a badge is entitled to his dinner free at the big open air "mess hall." The food will be prepared in the hospital kitchens and will be brought steaming to the scene of the feast where sixteen captains, assisted by a horde of helpers and waitresses, all decked in white, will convey it to the plates of the hungry veterans. The ladies who have been designated as captains are all members of the service star legion and will thus have a direct interest in feeding the boys as their own.

It was no small task to prepare for the feeding of four thousand men. For more than a week a number of men have been at work preparing the tables for the occasion.

The tables have been arranged north and south about 200 feet east of the new cottages. They have been placed under a row of large elm trees. Six tables at least 300 feet in length have been built. To the west table which will be used mainly for serving, gas mains have been run and at intervals will be large coffee urns which will be kept red hot by gas burners so that the veterans will have coffee steaming hot with their meal. The arrangements are most complete and no doubt all will be taken care of in a short time after the serving starts.

Following menu will be served:

Menu
Patriotic Sandwiches
Pickles Radishes Onions

The names of the captains and the units over which they will preside are as follows:

1. Mrs. Grant Graff.
2. Mrs. Will Bancroft.
3. Mrs. Lillian King.
4. Mrs. Martha Alcott.
5. Mrs. J. A. Paschall.

COMMANDER ENTENZA IS NOTED ATTORNEY

Maintains Law Offices in Detroit and San Francisco—Also Published Civic Newspaper.

One of the most able men in the ranks of the United Spanish War Veterans is the National Commander in Chief Antonio P. Entenza. He will attend the session of the state encampment and is slated for one of the main addresses. The following is a brief synopsis of Mr. Entenza's public career:

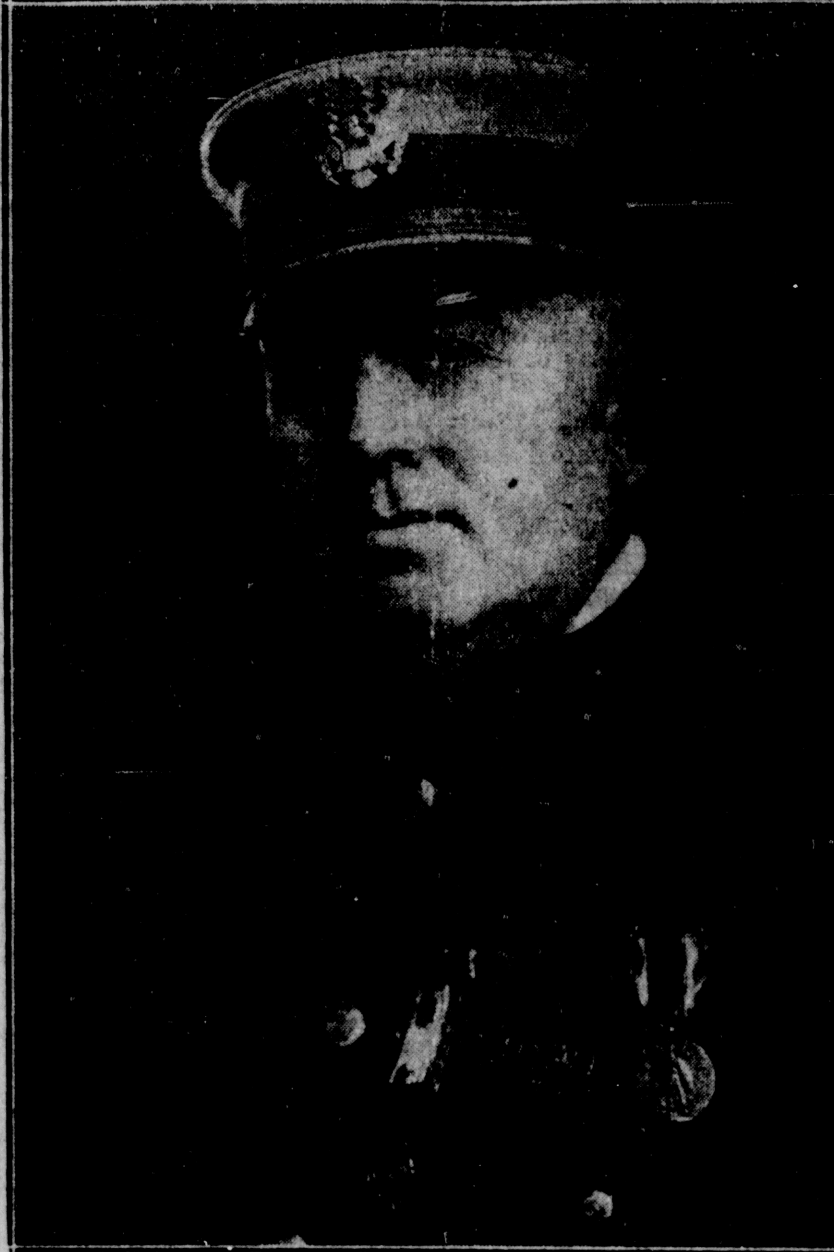

Commander-in-Chief Antonio P. Entenza is a lawyer and publicist, having in addition to his very extended law practice in Detroit, Michigan, edited and published a civic newspaper intended to improve the political and civic conditions in the City of Detroit. He has now opened a law office at 804 Merchants' Exchange Building, San Francisco, California, and is operating both law offices. He has held various appointive positions of responsibility in the Spanish-American War Veterans' Association under previous national commanders. He is a man of ability, a commanding speaker and a citizen with every characteristic of interest in the welfare of his community, state and nation. Entenza is a big type man and is able to handle himself before any audience in a way that reflects credit on the organization he represents.

COLONEL JOHN J. GARRITY PAST DEPARTMENT COMMANDER

Colonel Garrity served in the Spanish-American War as a Major in Cuba, and was a Colonel in the World War. Last year he was Adjutant General of the National organization of the U. S. War Veterans, under Commander-in-Chief Carlstrom.

JACKSONVILLE POST WILL GO AFTER NEXT LEGION CONVENTION

American Legion Says That Patriotic Jubilee is Beginning of a Series of Activities Leading Up to This—Big Fourth of July Celebration Will be Held at State Hospital

The Patriotic Jubilee now in progress in Jacksonville is the first step in a series of activities to be attempted by the local Legion Post to get the city of Jacksonville before the state of Illinois as the logical place for the next year's state convention of the legion.

On the Fourth of July the Legion will assist the staff of the State Hospital in staging a mammoth celebration on the Hospital grounds. The managing officer of the Hospital has been fortunate in securing a varying assortment of unusual entertainment for this day. The States Theatrical Exchange, Inc., of St. Louis, will furnish free acts, consisting of a Bear Circus, Younger Family Acrobats, a Spectacular Head Balancer who will descend from a 150-foot scaffold on roller skates, together with several other feature acts. Music will be furnished by several well known bands and a mammoth fireworks spectacle symbolic of the day will be staged in the evening.

Plans are being made for an ex-service men's outing later in the summer when a reunion of all ex-service men in the county will be held at some nearby resort. A conference of all legion heads in the county will be called in the near future to complete arrangements.

The entire legion plans to go to Danville in September in a body accompanied by a band and official box car. They intend to show the state at large that Jacksonville is an ideal place for 1924 convention. By that time the new $200,000 hotel will be completed and with the continuance of the splendid co-operation of the Chamber of Commerce it should be a comparatively easy matter for the local post of the American Legion to secure for Jacksonville this worth-while convention. By that time Jacksonville will be so interlocked with neighboring cities by hard roads, that the transportation problem will be solved. Jacksonville's railway facilities coupled with Springfield's Interurban system makes Jacksonville an ideal spot to hold a convention of any kind. The local post is up on its toes, ready to go after and get this convention and the coming months will find each member of this post working towards this end.

MEMBERS OF 40-8 ARE COMING STRONG

Will Take Part in Big Dedication—Famous 40-8 Band of Bloomington to Head Parade of Legion.

La Societe des Quarante Hommes et Huit Chevaux is the play ground of the American Legion. It corresponds in a fashion to the degree of the Mystic Shrine in the Masonic order, eligibility to which depends on valued service to the fraternity. The American Legion is a great Fraternity of men-at-arms embracing those men young or old, who offered their lives to their country in time of war. The 40-8 is designed to gather into one body the men of the legion who are willing to actively continue their service to their country and their comrades in time of peace.

La Societe is fundamentally a playground designed to furnish relaxation for the hard workers within the Legion ranks. And as such it brings together socially the leaders in every county. There being but one locale permitted in a county. La Societe is a great factor in creating through the social intercourse of its promenades, a closer bond of comradeship and undertaking between members of the various posts, so necessary to the success of the Legion.

The box car of the French Railway with the inscription "40 Hommes 8 Chevaux" (40 men—8 horses) is the insignia of La Societe. French titles distinguish the officers, and the ritual recites the memories of war days. The "Chef de Chemin de Fer" is literally the chief of the road or iron, or railroad president. The "Chef de Gare" is the Station Master and the Chef de Train is the Assistant Station Master. The Conductor, the Director; then "Chefs de la Porte" the guard of the door; the "Garde de la prisonnier," the prisoners guard etc.

Members of the 40-8 are known by the generic term "voyageur militaire" or military travelers. Candidates are Prisonniers de guerre or "Poor Goofs." Translate it as you will. A wrecking crew puts on the initiation ceremonies. The local volume of the 40-8 is steadily gaining in numbers and expects to co-operate fully with the American Legion in making the dedication a success.

Every member will be out in uniform on June 15, to welcome the Famous 40-8 Band from Bloomington. A fleet of cars headed by a replica of the French box car of War time days will meet the band at the C. and A. Station and escort them to the registration booth. From there they will go to the State Hospital where a free dinner will be in readiness for all ex-service men, under the auspices of the Local Legion Post. Following the Parade it is the intention of the Local volume to make a tour of the city and show the visitors a royal welcome.

The Forty and eight will be well represented in the mammoth parade to be staged in this city on June 15. Leading the Legion and World War section of the Parade will come the Crack 40-8 band, a 100 percent Legion organization. Following the band will be a correct duplicate of a war time French box car so well known to every member of the A. E. F. Great care has been exercised in the building of this car to make it an exact replica of the original, with its peculiar style of couplings and bumpers, its cupola on the rear and the lettering and phases which were placed on them during the active days of the A. E. F. The box car will be camouflaged by some of the best camouflage Artists obtainable, and will give many people an opportunity to see for the first time the mode of travel used by the A. E. F.

Every member of the 40-8 will march in the vanguard of the Legion and will wear the French Blue Chapeaux, the official cap of the 40-8.

COMMANDER OF LOCAL CAMP OF U. S. W. VETS HAS FINE WAR RECORD

Is a Veteran of the Spanish-American and World Wars—Also Served in the Regular Army—Largely Instrumental in Securing Annual Encampment for Jacksonville

Col. O. C. Smith, commander of William H. Rule Camp, has an enviable war record gained in two wars and as a member of the regular army. He was largely instrumental in organizing the local camp and has been one of its leading spirits since.

It was thru his efforts that the annual Encampment is being held here this year and he has been working constantly to make it a success. Indications point to one of the greatest Encampments in the history of the organization. The following relative to Col. Smith's war record is taken from the Franklin county Illinois War History.

Fighting life's battles against discouraging odds, surmounting obstacles that would test the most courageous, handicapped by an environment that ruins the best resolutions and through the inspiration of the inner soul being encouraged by patriotism and higher ambition, Colonel O. C. Smith has been victorious.

Born in Sullivan county, Ind., our subject received a common school education and being unable to take up the higher studies, perfected his education at odd times and taught school in Crawford county for two terms, 1893-1895, and then enlisted in the Regular Army, August 5, 1895, receiving his discharge December 12, 1896. Coming to Franklin county in March, 1897, he ran a saw mill engine in the Middle Fork bottoms during the summer and taught school in the winter.

The military spirit of our subject again became paramount, and he actively engaged in organizing Co. "F", 9th Ill. Vol. Inf. for service in the Spanish-American war. He later enlisted in Co. "G", 5th Ill. Vol. Inf., and was promoted Artillery May 26, 1898, and mustered out with the company Oct. 16, 1898. Occasion for military activity arising in the Philippine Islands, he enlisted on July 6, 1899 in Co. "L", 30th Vol. Inf. and with forty-seven local members of the newly organized Co. "F", N. G., served through the Philippine campaign, being discharged Oct. 12, 1900, with the grade of sergeant.

Elated City Attorney
Returning to civilian life he was city attorney of Benton from 1902 to 1904, and later read law while working in the coal mines, being admitted to the bar in 1913; assistant State's Attorney 1914. Keeping alive the military spirit of the county, he organized and mustered in Co. "F", Ill. N. G. on May 22, 1913. In June, 1916, with the war clouds again threatening, he recruited his company to full strength serving on the Mexican Border until March, 1917. When the call came to register for the World War, he conducted the registration of the country for the Sheriff and County Clerk and again recruited Co. "F" to war strength, but received an appointment as Assistant Judge Advocate with rank of Major, and was attached to the 33rd Division until March 8, 1918, and was then appointed Judge Advocate of the 90th Division for overseas service but before the severe engagements of St. Mihiel and the Argonne requested to be relieved from his duties as Judge Advocate for active service at the front and acted as observer in these battles being severely gassed on Sept. 15, 1918, and is the only Judge Advocate entitled to wear a wound chevron. Was promoted to Lieut. Colonel on Nov. 11, 1918, and was officer in charge of civil affairs in Germany until January, 1919. Returning from overseas service he entered the race for City Judge of Benton and was elected July 9, 1919, but was not discharged from military service until July 11, 1919. The affairs of the Home Service Section of the Red Cross needing the volunteer work from one familiar with the needs of returning soldiers, he took up this work in connection with his judicial duties and law practice. Under his direction this department has handled more than 8,000 claims.

COL. OSCAR C. SMITH

Dept. Judge Advocate and Commander Local Camp

WHITE HALL

White Hall, June 13.—Russell Roodhouse has fared so well since becoming identified with the Sinclair Oil Company at Wad River that he has decided to locate his family there, having purchased a home in the great oil refining center.

The rainfall at White Hall between 3 a. m. Sunday and 1 a. m. Tuesday amounted to 0.83 of an inch. It filled a long-felt want, as the local showers of the past week or more failed to visit White Hall, although making themselves felt strenuously at points in all directions. The rain has been ample for surface needs, but does not give the necessary replenishment to supplies.

The C. and A. handled a couple of special trains Tuesday, one from Chicago and one from St. Louis, that reached Roodhouse shortly after 2 p. m. and consolidated at Roodhouse for Kansas City. The trains conveyed members of the convention of the Association of Railroad Superintendents.

M. W. Lorton returned to East Alton, Monday evening, leaving his family and auto for return at a more favorable season. While here word was received that Mr. Lorton had been chosen as treasurer by the village board. Mr. Lorton resigned a postal position here nearly four years ago to become identified with the East Alton State Bank, and it appears that he is gradually rising in the financial affairs of his community.

Rev. C. C. Dawdy and family arrived from Brownstown, Ill., Tuesday, and the family will remain here while Rev. Dawdy is pastor of the Methodist church at Brownstown, being one of the young ministers of that denomination. His wife was formerly Miss Clara Peters. Rev. Dawdy was formerly a passenger flagman on the C. & A., entering the ministry about seven years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wood helped represent Sinclair on the streets of the city yesterday.

CHICAGO DELEGATION ARRIVED LAST NIGHT

Special Train Brings More Than 300 Visitors to Attend State Encampment of Spanish War Vets—Band Music and Fireworks Feature Journey Thru Business Section.

At least 350 Spanish War Vets and members of the Ladies Auxiliary of the organization arrived here at 11:30 o'clock last night via a C. and A. special train from Chicago. The delegation was accompanied by the Ex-Service Men's Field Band from Chicago, numbering about thirty-five pieces.

Scores of autos were at the station to convey the delegates to the School for the Deaf. Three street cars were also chartered for the occasion.

The local committee distributed Roman candles and other fireworks among the Chicago visitors and as the line of autos and street cars moved up State street, many of the conveyances were surrounded by showers of sparks and balls of fire. The air smelled like an old fashioned Fourth of July celebration. The band rendered several selections on the way to the School for the Deaf. The visitors were met at the depot by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans Home band, which is quartered at the School for the Blind.

A force of men with a moveable scaffold was busy until late last night in the business district putting up additional decorations along the line of march of the coming Jubilee parade.

DISTINGUISHED MEN HONORED BY COLLEGE

President Rammelkamp Confers Honorary Degrees at Commencement—Dr. Soares Makes Masterly Address.

The ninth-fourth annual commencement of Illinois college was held yesterday morning in the college grove and was attended by a large audience. The Rev. Dr. Andrew K. Rule, recently of Edinburgh, Scotland, delivered the invocation, following the march of the graduating class, faculty, alumni and former students to their seats. Music was furnished by the conservatory orchestra. One of the most impressive parts of the program was the conferring of honorary degrees by the president, Dr. C. H. Rammelkamp. The candidates were presented for their degrees by Dr. J. G. Ames.

The first to be presented in this way was Dr. Charles David Williamson, who was given the degree of Bachelor of Arts and restored to membership in his class of 1897. Owing to circumstances over which he had no control, Dr. Williamson was unable to finish the work with his class. He entered another institution, but again circumstances prevented his graduation. He later graduated from a theological seminary, and is now pastor of a Presbyterian church at Pomona, Cal. For the past seventeen years, he has been making original studies of the ancient civilizations of the great southwest and has disseminated the knowledge thus gained by lectures and writings.

President Rammelkamp next conferred the degree of Master of Arts on Rev. Charles M. Eames of the class of 1904. After his graduation, Rev. Eames entered Princeton Theological seminary, from which he graduated. He was then sent as a Presbyterian missionary to Shantung province, China, where he has since labored. In addition to preaching the gospel in the town where he is located he is principal of the high school and director of some thirty grade schools. In conferring the degree, the president said:

"Loyal Alumnus, faithful servant in the great cause of Christian civilization, by the authority vested in me by the board of trustees of Illinois college, I confer upon you the degree of Master of Arts, and in evidence thereof hand you this diploma, with heartiest congratulations."

The degree of Master of Arts was next conferred on David Hayes Garrett of the class of 1896, who has distinguished himself in the field of mathematics. In conferring the degree, President Rammelkamp said:

"Loyal alumnus, fine scholar, teacher of distinction in the field of mathematical science, etc." Mr. Garrett is now head of the department of mathematics in the University at Baldwin, Kansas.

The president then conferred the degree of Doctor of Divinity on Rev. E. C. Pires of the class of 1902, now pastor of the Calvary Presbyterian church in Chicago. He is a graduate of Princeton Theological seminary and has held pastorates in Erie, Pa., Taylorville and Diverson, Ill. In his statement of presentation of the degree, the president said: "Loyal alumnus, Eloquent and untiring servant in the vineyard of the Lord, etc."

The last honorary degree was that of Doctor of Science, conferred on Prof. William Henry Stevenson, professor of soils and farm crops in Iowa Agricultural college. He also is director of the Iowa Soil Survey and holds other prominent positions in the agricultural organizations of the state. He was for more than a year the representative of the United States at the International Institute of Agriculture at Rome, Italy. While abroad he was given an honorary degree by the University of Padua in presenting the degree, the president addressed the candidate as "distinguished investigator, teacher, representative of our country in the field of agriculture, etc."

Commencement Address The commencement address by Dr. Theodore G. Soares, head of the department of religious education at the University of Chicago, was filled with thoughts for serious consideration. He endeavored to answer the question: "Is Human Progress a Delusion?" He said that it may be that civilization and human achievement go in circles; first the savage, then the monarchies, aristocracies and finally the reaching up of the mass to pull down the structure and a return to savagery and medievalism.

Dr. Soares said that it may be possible in the future to organize a democratic civilization, but thus far there had been no such thing in the world. Brilliant civilizations have been built up at the expense of the tolling masses, and no other form of life has ever been tried. We can organize the world to give great advantages to the few, give some lesser advantages to a large number, but the mass of the people are thus kept in slavery.

The speaker said that there may be a second world war, but never will be a third. We knew little or nothing about war when the first world conflict opened, but we know how to fight now, and what we did in the destruction of human life and the causing of human misery then is nothing to what will be done in another such conflict. That will mean the suicide of the white race.

do we achieve as much when we have? In this serious picture, Dr. Soares saw signs of hope. We are becoming ashamed of ourselves, we are not quite comfortable in our positions. Those who would limit education for fear that there will be no one to do the menial work are not so firm and determined as formerly. The time may come when we can all work together for the progress of the world, and there will be no such thing as menial work, or a distinction of high and low kinds of labor.

In the second place, people are becoming more sensitive to human distress. There are more efforts to make life a little easier for the less fortunate. Great areas of our civilization are still cruel, but we are gradually becoming more human. We are not human yet, only Man having reached that pinnacle of having a truly human soul, and because of Him, "the hope of the race is Jesus."

Again we are becoming more rational. Talk is the cheapest thing in the world, and yet the greatest thing in the world is talk. If Germany had been willing to talk things over in 1914, seven million young men would not have had to die. If England and America should have a serious dispute and the yellow press on both sides of the ocean should howl for war, it would be time to talk things over, and by the time the conference ended, the heat of anger in both nations would be dead.

If we strive to attain justice, kindness and rationality, with a sense of the presence of God, human progress will not be a delusion.

Five members of the senior class received the degree of Bachelor of Science, while the remainder of the thirty-four members took the degree of Bachelor of Arts. The president announced the following list of wards of honors and prizes.

LOCAL POLICE HAVE BIG JOB THIS WEEK

Chief Kiloran Asks Co-Operation of Citizens in Enforcing Traffic Rules—Several Extras Will be Added to Force.

Chief Frank Kiloran of the city police force has his job cut out for him and his men during the next three days. He is asking the public to co-operate in every way possible, especially in avoiding traffic troubles. No cars are to be parked on West State street between the square and Church street during the big parade Friday afternoon. Cars parked in the middle of the streets around the square must be withdrawn before the parade, as the entire street must be used for the column. However, parking will be permitted around the curbs in the business section.

It is also requested that no autos move on the square during the parade, as it is bad manners to break the lines with traffic and also delays the movement of the parade.

At least ten extra police will be put on Friday to handle the traffic during the parade. There will be extra men on the force during the entire three days. It is hoped that there will be little for police to do during the festivities—but it is the intention of the department to be prepared for any emergency. A platoon of police will march in the parade.

MANY APPLICATIONS FOR CAMP CUSTER

Applicants for the Citizen's Military Training courses at Camp Custer are coming forward in increasing numbers according to Colonel Noble Brandon Judah, civilian aide to the Secretary of war for this region.

"The boys from the down state counties are coming to the front fast this year and it will not be long before the quotas are all filled," he said. "Every youngster has a right to be taught how to protect himself. The boys who had had military training in the world war were much better situated at all times than the lads who were thrust into the army without any previous knowledge of military affairs."

"It is the object of these military training camps to give all American a working knowledge of military affairs so that the United States will never again be caught at a disadvantage as it was in 1917 and be forced to call upon youngsters to defend it without proper military preparation."

MEYERS BROTHERS' WINDOW INTERESTING

The east window of Meyers Brothers clothing store has been very interestingly arranged with a collection of relics of the Spanish-American war. The relics were contributed by several people, the major portion being loaned by William Corbridge. The collection are several Spanish implements of warfare, including a short stocky sword with a queer shaped square end, the blade being very wide. There are also many relics of our own soldiers including cartridge belts, bayonets and little souvenirs made of the wild pig's tusks. The swords worn by Captain Vickery and Lieutenant Hunt of Company I are also on display.

Willard Batteries

Win Again!

Tommy Milton's great victory at the Indianapolis Speedway races against a field of the greatest automobile drivers in the country proved a victory not only for the driver and the car but also for the equipment which carried the car into first place.

The winning car was equipped with battery ignition, using a WILLARD BATTERY. Machines driven by Harry Hartz, Jimmy Murphy and Earl Cooper who finished second, third and fourth, respectively, were also battery equipped with WILLARDS.

Last year there was but one car in the race Willard equipped, that of Jimmy Murphy, the winner. This year out of the ten who finished within the money, seven carried Willard Batteries. This was indeed a great victory for this battery.

The Indianapolis classic is the most gruelling test that can be imagined not only for the drivers and their cars but also for the storage battery. In the constant bumping and banging of the car in the 500 miles of the race the storage battery must continue to function, giving its eight sparks for every revolution of the powerful engines. The winning car was driven at an engine speed of 5,600 revolutions a minute, requiring the WILLARD BATTERY to supply 44,800 sparks per minute. Thus the battery on the winning car was required to furnish approximately thirteen and a half million sparks, a truly remarkable performance considering that no generator is carried on a racing car to recharge the battery.

President Rammelkamp Makes Annual Report of Illinois College 1922-23

The stream of young people seeking entrance into the colleges of our land continues to flow with increasing volume. Never was there so great a demand for higher education, and Illinois College, like many another institution of higher learning, is trying to do her share in serving the state and nation by helping to meet this demand. I invite the attention of alumni and friends to a brief statement of the effort which we have made during the past year to do our part in this great field of educational service.

TRUSTEES

Few changes occur on our Board of Trustees this year. Mr. Harry J. Dunbaugh, who has given ten years of loyal and efficient service as one of the alumni trustees, refused to stand for reelection this year and in his place the alumni have nominated and the trustees have elected Mr. E. Bentley Hamilton. Mr. Hamilton, an alumnus of the class of 1902, and a well known attorney of the city of Peoria, has for the past year been president of the general alumni association, and in that capacity as well as in many other ways, has shown himself to be one of the most active and loyal of the alumni of the College. We welcome him to our board. To our sincere regret, Mr. David W. Frackelton, '94, has resigned from our board because he finds that certain engagements in a distant city make it impossible for him to attend our meetings. His retirement means no diminution of his warm loyalty and interest.

COLLEGE FACULTY AND WORK OF INSTRUCTION

For various reasons, several changes will occur on the faculty of the College next year.

The sudden death of Dean Emeritus F. S. Hayden last October brought deep sorrow to our college community. Dr. Hayden served the College first in 1899 as Lecturer on Theism and Evidences of Christianity, and in 1901 became a regular member of the faculty as Chaplain and Professor of Philosophy and Biblical Literature, being appointed also Dean in 1903. He was thus connected with the College for about twenty-three years. Born in the East, brought up and prepared for college in the Middle West, a graduate of Yale College and the Yale Divinity School, and pastor in Michigan, Missouri and Illinois, Dr. Hayden came to our faculty after a varied experience and with broad sympathies and a solid foundation of scholarship. It is not an exaggeration to say that he was the most beloved member of our faculty. He endeared himself especially to the men who went into the service by the hundreds of intimate, personal letters which he wrote them, wherever they might be—in camp, in the trenches or on the sea. The charm of his personality, his culture, and qualities as a Christian gentleman, were a strong influence on the campus of Illinois College. His memory will live in the affections of hundreds of our graduates and former students. The tablet recently placed on the wall of the chapel bears testimony to their affection and gratitude. We are indebted to the Reverend William H. Marbach of the State Street Church and the Reverend Thomas W. Smith of Westminster Church, for their help in conducting the classes in Biblical literature formerly in charge of Dr. Hayden—Dr. Swift having taken his class in sociology.

The death of Dr. Hayden has led to several readjustments of courses, and a somewhat different grouping of departments. In the process of these changes Dr. Swift was at first appointed to the new chair of psychology and education, but since he was not primarily interested in that combination of subjects, he has more recently resigned in order to accept a professorship in philosophy, his chosen field, at Rockford College. Professor Swift has given very efficient service to Illinois College and we deeply regret to lose him.

The Reverend Andrew K. Rule has very recently been appointed to the Joel K. Scarborough chair of Biblical Literature and Philosophy. Mr. Rule is a graduate of the University of New Zealand, with a master of arts degree from the same university. He holds a divinity degree from the Princeton Theological Seminary, and for the past two years has been studying on a Princeton fellowship in the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, and Bonn University, Germany. He expects to receive his doctor of philosophy degree from the University of Edinburgh this spring. Mr. Rule, an ordained minister in the Presbyterian Church, was for two years Professor of Philosophy and Education in Friends University, Wichita, Kansas. Great care has been taken in filling this important chair, and we believe we have found a man who will fully measure up to our expectations.

Mr. Arthur Gordon Melvin has been appointed to the chair in psychology and education. Mr. Melvin is a graduate of Dalhousie University, Nova Scotia, and will receive his degree of doctor of philosophy in the field of education from Columbia University either this June or later in the summer. He is at present filling the position as Professor of Education at Olivet College, Michigan. He served in the Canadian navy during the world war. The appointment of Mr. Melvin will make it possible for the College to offer a greater variety of courses in the field of psychology and education, and thereby enable our students more easily and adequately to meet the requirements in education established by law in various states. So large a proportion of our students are preparing for the teaching profession as to make it imperatively necessary to pay more attention to this field of instruction.

Harry DeMerle Wolf has been appointed to the new assistant professorship in economics and social sciences, recently established by the trustees. Mr. Wolf is a graduate of the Kansas State Normal College, and will receive his master's degree in the field of economics and sociology at the University of Chicago this summer. He served in the United States army overseas during the world war.

To our sincere regret Wilbur G. Guild has resigned his position as instructor in mathematics and physics in order to take up work in a different field. Mr. George W. Schneider, a graduate of the Case School of Applied Science of Cleveland, has been appointed to this vacant instructorship. Miss Cora E. Kercher, who has served during the present year as instructor in Greek and Latin, will not return next year, and Miss Emily L. Wadsworth, a graduate of Smith College, has been appointed to fill this vacancy. Miss Wadsworth, in addition to her work at Smith College, has nearly completed her work for the doctorate at Columbia and has had two years of travel and study in Italy and Greece. Her thesis on Roman Stucco Reliefs will be published in the next number of the Memoirs of the American Academy at Rome. Miss Suzanne Mayer, instructor in French, has resigned her position in order to take up graduate study at the University of Illinois. To this vacancy we have appointed Miss Allee M. Smith, a graduate of Central College, Missouri, and now a graduate student in the University of Chicago. Professor Hilda M. Raetzmann, who has been away this year, on a leave of absence, studying and traveling in Europe, expects to return to her professorship of modern languages next fall. Miss Raetzmann will resume charge of the courses temporarily taught during the present year by Professor Mary Louise Strong.

Early last fall Professor Isabel S. Smith was appointed to the position of Dean of Women, recently created by the trustees. We appreciate the ready willingness of Miss Smith to assume for a time, at least, the administrative responsibility in addition to her heavy duties as head of the department of biology. We take this occasion also to congratulate Professor Smith upon the doctor's degree which she received from the University of Chicago a few months ago.

The last two years have witnessed a considerable expansion in the variety of courses offered by the College. The appointment of an additional instructor in English and public speaking last year has not only provided necessary instruction for a larger group of students in elementary English, but has enabled the department to offer new courses in such fields as American literature, journalism and public speaking. The appointment of an assistant professor of economics and social science will enable the College to offer a variety of new courses in the important fields of economics, business administration and government. The demand on the part of students for courses in business administration has been especially strong, and I am glad the College will now be able, in a measure, to meet this demand. Furthermore, the readjustments, resulting from the appointment of new professors of Biblical literature and philosophy and of psychology and education will enable us, as already noted, to offer new courses in those various fields, more particularly in education, psychology and religion. In Illinois College, as in most other institutions, there has developed in the last two or three years an increased interest in Spanish. A few years ago no courses in Spanish were offered, but today that language attracts more students than does any other foreign language in our curriculum. It will be of interest to the friends of the College to know that Professor Busey, head of our modern languages department, will spend the summer in travel and study in Spain.

Reference was made in the annual report of last year to various plans adopted by the faculty still further to raise the standard of work in the College, particular attention being called to the adoption of the honor point system. This plan is working well, and a few additional regulations have been adopted by the faculty still further to improve the quality of the work done by the students. For example, the faculty recently decided that students who are failing in their current class work shall not have the privilege of taking the final examinations. Time will have to prove whether or not this new regulation is a wise one. Early in the past year, the College was placed on the accredited list of the Association of American Universities. It is not to be inferred, however, that Illinois College has not heretofore been eligible to the accredited list of this association for as a matter of fact, application for such accrediting had never previously been made. Illinois College, with nearly a century of good work back of her has ever been a leader in promoting higher educational standards in this part of the country, and it need hardly be said to those familiar with such things that the College has first class standing, or what some people are pleased to call Class A rating, with the various standardizing agencies.

The increasing number of our faculty, and the expansion of our curriculum now taking place, make it more imperative than ever that faculty and trustees should not lose sight of the ideals of the College. Demands are numerous for instruction in a great variety of fields—professional, technical and vocational. If we are not careful as we face these new problems of the curriculum, we may make some serious mistakes in general educational policy. The future of Illinois College is linked, I believe, with the maintenance of the cultural ideal. We can never hope to compete with state universities and technical schools in offering those professional or semi-professional and vocational courses that are always the most expensive part of a college curriculum. Furthermore, in these days when material prosperity and financial success seem to be the goal of increasing thousands, and when a spirit of selfish nationalism blinds many statesmen or would-be statesmen to our duty in the work of the world, it is more important than ever that these cultural and spiritual ideals which have always inspired mankind to its noblest achievements, should not be trailed in the dust. The maintenance of these ideals is, in my opinion, the greatest service which colleges like our own can render the state and nation.

One additional word, I believe should be said at this time by the president of every Christian college, who is interested in making his institution of the greatest service to both education and religion. We have again heard much in the last year or two of the conflict between science and religion. Some of us had supposed that controversy was a corpse buried these many years deep beneath the surface of the ground, but some well-meaning people have dug up this skeleton and are trying to galvanize it into life. And it must be confessed that, with the help of a sensational press, they have met with considerable success. Let us beware—let us not be stampeded into an unreasonable fear of a ghost. There has been in the past it is true, a conflict between science and man-made theology, but there has not been in the past and there cannot be in the future, a conflict between science and God-made religion. Religion has nothing to fear from a frank facing of the truth, and as a college man and a member of a church, I resent the effort of some people to drive us into the position of the proverbial ostrich that sticks her head into the sand. We shall continue at Illinois College to lead our students through the fields of modern science and scientific history, and we shall expect them, with the help of their science and history teachers and the other members of the college faculty, all of whom are Christian men and women, to become more truly religious not in spite of their studies in science, history, and philosophy, but because of such studies.

I insert the statistics showing the preference of students in the selection of their major studies and the registration in the different departments, the figures representing the average for the two semesters:

THE COLLEGE LIBRARY

I cannot let any annual commencement pass without calling attention to our urgent need for a new library building. The constantly increasing number of students makes this need ever more acute. I am glad to report that a former student of the class of '82 generously subscribed $5000 to the library building fund a few months ago. May his action furnish an example to other alumni and friends who would like to help the College meet one of its greatest needs. The College Library is destined to be the most useful and probably the most important building on the campus. What an appropriate memorial it may also be to some worthy alumnus or friend.

The librarian reports that 670 books have been accessioned during the year, of which number, 249 books represent new purchases, the others being accessioned from donated books. The cataloging of books from the Hiram K. Jones, Hugh M. Wilson and Francis A. Riddle collections has continued during the year. The number of books and periodicals circulated during the year was 7535—the largest circulation being in the departments of history, English literature, science and philosophy in the order named.

CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

The work of the Conservatory of Music has gone on during the year in its usual successful manner. More students were registered in the department than in the previous year and the quality of the work has continued on that high plane which has won the confidence and admiration of the patrons of the school.

Several vacancies will occur this coming year on the faculty of the Conservatory of Music. Mr. Arnold Lovejoy, head of the voice department, Miss Florence Schweke, of the piano and organ department, and Miss Inez Pires, of the piano department will not return to their positions next year in spite of the fact that all were invited to continue their work in the Conservatory. We are at present in communication with a number of acceptable candidates for these vacancies and appointments will soon be made.

ACADEMY HALL AND THE WOMEN OF THE COLLEGE

Academy Hall was again filled to overflowing last fall, and we were obliged to rent several rooms in nearby homes to accommodate our girls. These girls who reside outside of Academy Hall, are put on their honor to observe the ordinary rules and regulations of the Hall, and an effort is made to secure the cooperation of the owners of the homes in matters of discipline. However, this plan of placing girls in private homes can be regarded only as a makeshift arrangement, far from satisfactory. The only satisfactory solution of the problem will be the construction of a new girls' dormitory or possibly the construction of an addition to Academy Hall. Most important among the improvements of the year was the installation of a recreation room in place of the old dining room in the east basement. Work has also been started on a new clay tennis court on the Academy Hall campus.

Further effort was made during the year to solve the problem of securing a building for the social and recreational needs of our women, but for various reasons, comparatively little progress was made in this enterprise. However, several women, both alumnae and friends, are actively interested in the movement, and it deserves our support and hearty cooperation. May the time soon come when some generous friend, especially interested in the welfare of our women, will help us to solve this important problem. One hundred thousand dollars will construct on our college campus a woman's building that will provide quarters for our girls' societies, a gymnasium, a reception hall and other conveniences for our women.

The appointment of a dean of women, already noted, is evidence that the trustees are alive to their responsibilities in the matter of making more adequate provision for the welfare of our women.

STUDENTS

The past year has witnessed another increase in the number of our students. In the College, 293 students were enrolled, an increase of 36 over the previous year; a total of 520 different students were enrolled in all departments as compared with 488 in the previous year. If another increase of college students occurs next fall, as seems entirely likely, it will be impossible to accommodate the student body in the chapel. As a result of the consideration given to the problem of a steadily increasing student body, it has been decided to limit the entering class next fall to 150, and by action of a joint committee of trustees and faculty, this limitation will be accomplished by the following regulations: (1) only students whose average grade for the high school course is distinctly above passing will be admitted; (2) preference will be given to applications for entrance in the order in which they are filed; (3) application must be accompanied by a reservation deposit of $10. The installation of an additional chemical laboratory and the action of the faculty in scheduling a limited number of classes on Saturday forenoons, will help to relieve to some extent the congestion which has threatened to interfere with the efficiency of our work. The scheme of Saturday classes has some disadvantages, especially because it may interfere with the plans of that group of worthy students, always large in Illinois College, who are earning their way, but it seems to be at present the only way of securing relief.

The various student organizations have been conducted with encouraging success during the year. Especially noteworthy has been the success of the boys' and the girls' glee clubs, under the efficient direction of Mr. Lovejoy. It is no exaggeration to say that these clubs have been more successful than in any previous year of the twenty odd years that I have been connected with Illinois College. Whatever arrangements may be made for instruction in voice in the Conservatory of Music for next year, it is to be hoped that we shall find an efficient director of these two clubs. They not only furnish wholesome recreation for students, but when properly and successfully conducted, they provide a legitimate means of publicity for the College. The same high praise can be given to the college band, which has been efficiently directed during the year by J. Bart Johnson.

In debating, our regular college teams won their debates from Augustana and Monmouth, but the freshmen teams lost their two debates with the Carthage freshmen. I regret to say that the joint debate was omitted this year, not, it is evident because of any lack of interest in debating, but because the existence of three college literary societies makes it more difficult to arrange the details of a joint debate. I hope plans may be worked out for the resumption of these inter-society debates next year. It would be unfortunate, in my opinion, if these traditional rivalries between our literary societies should be permanently dropped from the college calendar.

In order to encourage more attention to scholarship on the part of the literary societies, the faculty continues to publish the average grades of the various societies. The following were the scholastic averages of the first semester on the basis of 3 as perfect:

Society or Group	Members	Average Grade
Gamma Delta	24	1.82
Non-Society Women	10	1.63
Sigma Phi Epsilon	12	1.56
Agora	11	1.54
Alpha Eta Pi	27	1.48
Gamma Nu	25	1.45
Sigma Pi	23	1.40
Phi Alpha	43	1.14
Non-Society Men	80	.92

It would be a fine thing if some friend of the College would offer a prize—such as a loving cup—further to stimulate the interest of the literary societies in scholarship. The name and average of the winning society might each semester be engraved on the cup.

The athletic activities of the College have continued to prosper under the capable direction of Coach Harmon. This spring, for the fifth time in ten years, our boys won the Illinois intercollegiate track and field meet. An average of an intercollegiate championship on the track and field every other year is a record of which any college may well be proud. A new tennis court has been constructed on the campus, and additional courts should be constructed on the college campus as soon as funds are available. The increasing student body and consequent increasing size of college athletic teams and of gymnasium classes emphasize anew the necessity of more adequate gymnasium facilities. The time is also at hand when some adequate provision should be made for the physical activities and a general health program for the women.

The Young Women's Christian Association continues as one of the strongest organizations among our students. The Young Men's Christian Association is also active, although, possibly, it has not yet achieved among the men, the place of prominence and importance which the women's association holds among the women. I understand that about six women and four men will attend the conference at Geneva this summer. The College greatly appreciates the financial assistance which several of our local churches are giving to our Christian associations to enable them to pay the expenses of their delegates to these Geneva conferences.

The students' dramatic club gave a performance of Shakespeare's Twelfth Night on the campus this spring. The production was a success both artistically and financially, and reflects great credit not only upon the performers, but also upon both Professor Ames and Mr. Caldwell, under whose direction the play was given.

THE ALUMNI

In alumni affairs, probably the most significant event is the establishment of the Illinois College Alumni Quarterly by the alumni association. The first number of the periodical appeared last November with Henry H. Caldwell '17 as editor-in-chief, and Cole Y. Rowe, ex-'07, as business manager. The first two numbers were sent free to all alumni and former students, but subsequent numbers, according to the plan adopted, are to be sent only to those who subscribe. Every effort should be made to encourage the continuance of this publication, for I am certain it is an enterprise that will mean much to both the alumni and the College.

The Alumni Fund Association continued to prosper. In the last annual report, its membership is shown to be over 500, and the alumni fund endowment now amounts to $18,247. The completion of the Sigma Pi memorial fund of $1,300, chiefly through the efforts of Harry J. Dunbaugh, '99, Chairman of the Sigma Pi committee, and the new Phi Alpha Memorial Fund of $2000, through the efforts of W. D. Wood, '72, were noteworthy events in the activities of the Alumni Fund Association during the past year.

The death of George W. Harlan '46 now leaves Dr. William A. Knox '52 of Chicago, as the oldest living alumnus of the College.

The following alumni and former students have died since our last annual meeting:

Harland, George W., '46	Brown, John G., '62

RECONSTRUCTION OF STURTEVANT HALL

The restoration and improvement of the second floor of Sturtevant Hall were completed early last fall, and work is now well under way for the installation of an additional chemical laboratory in the basement of that building. When the work is all completed, as it will be this summer, the total cost will probably be about $52,000, as compared with $36,295, provided for the reconstruction and improvement from insurance and special gifts. That leaves, it will be noted, about $15,705 still to be provided from other sources to pay the probable total cost of this work. We have reason to believe that a portion of this remaining deficit can eventually be paid out of a probable surplus from the recent endowment and building campaign, but most of it must evidently be paid from other sources. Every effort should be made to secure additional subscriptions to the Sturtevant Hall Improvement Fund. There must be still other alumni and former students whose names are carved on the bricks of old Sturtevant Hall, who would like to carve their names also on this special subscription list.

FINANCES

With the additions from annual payments on the new endowment the amount of our productive endowment funds continues steadily to increase. The total of both old and new endowment now amounts to $842,595 as compared with $745,910 at the date of the last annual report, showing an increase of nearly $100,000 during the year. We received from the General Education Board last January $55,029 as the first payment on their subscription of $125,000 to our new endowment fund, and we expect additional payments from this board in the near future. I point again to the fact noted last year that when all of the subscriptions to the new fund are paid, the college will have well over a million dollars of productive endowment in addition to its campus and plant.

I am especially requested by the finance committee to urge all alumni and friends to pay their subscriptions as promptly as possible when due. In addition to what has already been paid on the subscription account, about $12,000 was due on June 1st. It is very important for the College in the management of its budget for next year and also in the settlement taking place with the General Education Board, that these subscriptions, now due, should be paid.

Once more, as uniformly for the past twelve years, the College has closed the current year without any deficit. The years when the College uniformly reported a deficit, are now so long past that we have almost forgotten them. I believe that the confidence established in the minds of all alumni and friends by this conservative, and careful management of our finances is one of the most valuable assets of Illinois College. The balance of the year is $3,726, but this surplus and more will be needed to help pay for the reconstruction of Sturtevant Hall.

Of the total net income available for running the College during the past year, 57.9 per cent came from endowment investments, 39.3 per cent from college tuition and fees, and 2.8 per cent from miscellaneous sources, such as the alumni fund, miscellaneous gifts, etc. It is thus evident that the students themselves paid last year less than 40 per cent of the cost of educating them. Furthermore, if the amount paid to students in scholarship grants were taken into account, the percentage paid by students would be still further reduced.

Two important financial problems should not be overlooked. One is that of making a further increase in professional salaries and the other, that of establishing a pension system for our faculty members. Both questions are complicated by the need of a larger faculty on account of an increasing body of students and a demand for a more diversified curriculum. The expansion that has already been made in the number of our instructing staff is, I believe, fully justified. If students continue to increase, as they undoubtedly will, there will soon have to be a further expansion of the faculty even in spite of our established policy of limiting the size of our freshman class; but aside from this inevitable increase in the number of our faculty, I am convinced we should not allow its membership to increase without due regard to the importance of increasing salaries and establishing a retiring allowance system. Although this subject is discussed under the head of finances, it has, of course, other bearings. It is chiefly a question of maintaining a faculty of high quality in competition with the best colleges of our own class.

CONCLUSION

I hope we shall keep in mind the program which I endeavored to present in my last annual report. We are not interested at all in pursuing a policy of indefinite expansion and development, but surely trustees, faculty, alumni and friends are determined not to rest on their oars, until we achieve the ideal that it worthy of our past and accords with sound educational policy. We must endeavor to provide instruction and equipment for approximately 500 students who are already knocking at our gates, ready to enter if we can accommodate them. The new library, a woman's building, a men's commons, an improved gymnasium, and eventually a new science hall constitute our building program, involving an expenditure of about $550,000. To maintain those buildings and provide an adequate faculty for our ideal college will necessitate additional endowment funds of about $700,000, making a total of about $1,250,000, as our ultimate goal. May I again express the hope that this goal will be reached by the time of our one hundredth anniversary in 1929. May God help us in this effort.

C. H. RAMMELKAMP.

BULL WHEAT MARKET

CHICAGO, June 13.—Unfavorable reports about probable serious curtailment of the wheat yield in Kansas this season and also in France had a bullish effect today on the wheat market here. Closing prices were firm, 1c to 1c net higher, with July $1.11 to $1.11½ and September $1.09½ to $1.09¾.

Corn, too, finished 1c to 1c up, on unchanged figures to 1c up 1c lower, and provisions varying from 10c decline to 10c advance.

An upward tendency which the wheat market showed at the opening was soon followed by a material decline and it was only in the last hour of trading that price gains were re-established.
The initial strength of prices appeared to be due chiefly to an unexpected advance in Liverpool quotations. However, the Liverpool advance failed to hold the buying here lacked volume and as a result of bearish estimates of the winter crop in Illinois, Missouri and Nebraska, all suggesting much larger production than indicated earlier in the season. Offerings of wheat became scarce in the last half of the day and port who tried to buy met with difficulty. Under such circumstances the market proved sensitive to advices regarding Kansas crop deterioration and to assertions that the condition of the wheat crop was alarming because of persistent bad weather. A little investment buying which developed at the last gave added force to the price advance and the finish was at virtually the day's top figures.

Corn swayed with wheat. During the late dealings, liberal orders to buy July corn at 80c and September at 76c brought about a tight situation for shorts. Besides shipping demand here was said to be more urgent than has been anticipated.

In the provision market selling on the part of smaller packers weakened hog values.

Queen Sandwich

Mince finely two parts of cooked chicken to one part of cooked tongue, and one part minced cooked mushrooms. Add seasoning and a little lemon juice, and place between thin slices of buttered "Ideal" bread.

'Ideal Breads'

Dainty Sandwiches for the Bridge Party

Whether it's an elaborate affair or just a little informal gathering of friends, the eternal question is "What Shall I Serve?" The following dainty and appetizing suggestions are delicious when "Ideal" bread is cut very thin, and in small squares or fancy shapes.

Ribbon Sandwich

Take five square, thin slices of buttered white bread. Between two slices place a filling made of salmon paste, between the next two slices a lettuce leaf, between the next two salmon paste again, and between the last two lettuce again. Press the bread together, then take a sharp knife, and cut crosswise into thin slices, each five slices of bread cut into six sandwiches.

Salmon paste is made by mashing canned salmon to a paste and adding a little salad dressing or lemon juice.

OBITUARY

Charles Gordon Jones died Tuesday, May 15th, 1923. He was born in Jacksonville, Ill., and was the son of the late Charles W. and Lilla E. Jones, being the eldest of a family of six children. His parents moved to Lynnville while he was a small boy where he passed the earlier years of his life and grew to manhood and in which community he leaves many relatives and a host of friends. He was a devout and consistent member of the Christian church and his influence was always used for the upbuilding and best interests of the community in which he lived. He was also a member of the Masonic lodge of Lynnville.

On February 20, 1895 he was united in marriage to Florence Camp, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Camp of Riggs-ton neighborhood. After his marriage he made his home on a farm three miles east of Jacksonville in the Antioch neighborhood. In the spring of 1911 he disposed of his interests in Morgan county and purchased a farm in Woodside Precinct, six miles south of Springfield, where he has since resided. Mr. Jones had been in gradually failing health for 18 months and had been under a doctor's care much of that time, suffering from Bright's disease and complications. He is survived by his widow, four children, Lilla E., Miriam A., Charles Junior, and Clarence; one brother, Dr. R. R. Jones of Woodson, and two sisters, Mrs. N. B. Westover of Springfield and Mrs. E. W. Crum of Waverly. Two children, Robert and Russell, one sister, Mrs. J. E. Gillham and one brother, Samuel Jones, preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held at the home and at the Gillham Funeral Home in Jacksonville and interment was made in the family lot in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Wm. Decker, son of Abner and Phebe (Nicolls) Decker, was born near Barry, Pike county, Illinois, December 10, 1841, and departed this life at the home of his daughter Mrs. Sydney Smith at Concord, Illinois, on May 30th, 1923. Mr. Decker, more familiarly known as "Dad" was the eldest of 11 children, 9 brothers and 2 sisters, four brothers having preceded him in death. He was united in marriage to Charity C. Lowe April 4, 1862. To this union was born six children, three having gone before. Three survive, namely Mrs. Sidney Smith, Mrs. Wm. Langhry of Concord and Wm. Decker of Beardstown.

His wife died July 21, 1918. Mr. Decker moved with his family from Pike county to Morgan county about 45 years ago, having spent this time in this vicinity and was a highly respected citizen; a great lover of home and his children. Altho not affiliated with any church, his life was an upright and industrious one, and can be looked upon with few regrets. Since the death of his wife he made the remark several times that he would be glad to be laid beside her. After traveling down the road of life so many years, he was tonesome to be left behind.

The pall bearers were Lloyd Clement, Edgar Smith, George Decker, Delbert Langhry, Ernest Langhry, Ernest Kuhlman, all grandsons.

The many beautiful flowers were in charge of Mrs. Bessie Clement, Mrs. Lottie Kuhlman, Miss Dorothy Smith, Miss Christine Langhry, granddaughters of Mr. Decker.

LASTING SATISFACTION in the Hupmobile

Satisfaction is perhaps the one word which best describes the feeling of every Hupmobile owner.

Satisfaction—with the faithful way it performs the tasks he sets for it to do; with the fact that it requires next to nothing in the way of expert care and adjustment; with low costs that stay low all the year 'round.

Satisfaction, in short, because the Hupmobile always does the things he wants it to do in the way he wants it to do them.

The Illinois Tire & Battery Co., has installed a solid tire hydraulic press at its establishment on West State street. This press has a pressure capacity of 22 tons and is large enough for use in the replacing of the largest automobile tires. By it use a solid tire of any size can be changed in 30 minutes' time.

Heretofore it has been necessary for truck owners in Jacksonville to send each work to Springfield or some other city. The installation of this machine will make it possible to have the work done in Jacksonville without the loss of time. The big machine weighs something more than four tons and is a substantial addition to the already complete equipment of the Illinois Tire & Battery Co.
